The McKinney Avenue Contemporary is a non-profit organization offering the opportunity for experimentation and the presentation of art in all disciplines. The MAC supports the artist's roll in society by providing emerging and established artists a forum for critical dialogue with their audiences. The MAC cultivates this relationship through education and innovative programming. The MAC stands as a Dallas advocate for creative freedom. The MAC has been a Dallas establishment since 1994. The MAC is a member of Dallas Art Dealers Association and The Uptown Association.
